

Charles Osgood, one of Americas favorite news personalities, offers a hilarious compendium of anecdotes from the last seventy years of presidential campaigns. With anecdotes from Harry Truman to JFK to George W. Bush, A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the White House captures the wit and humor of the campaign trail. Culled from speeches, interviews, press conferences, as well as articles written by and about the candidates--no source is left untapped. From Bob Dole telling reporters after a loss in the primary that I slept like a baby--every two hours I woke up and cried, and Barry Goldwaters comment that his talkative opponent Hubert Humphreys has been clocked at 275 words a minute with gusts up to 340, to Adlai Stevenson declaring that If I talk over the peoples head, Ike must be talking under their feet, this is the go-to source for campaign humor. Just when America most needs a good laugh, A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the White House makes the seemingly endless race to the presidency a lot more fun.
