

Alphabetic is an artistic and enriching book of art and poetry for young readers and adults to enjoy. More than a simple ABC book, it is a stunning compilation of graphic art in bold and appealing colors that enliven the rhythmic and playful poems on each page. The book is a challenging game of I-spy with a chorus of images on each page that correspond to that letter of the alphabet, going beyond A is for apple. The catch phrase Hip Hip Hooray encourages young readers to participate in the excitement of reading on every page, while combining games and reading strategies. A book that gets more exciting the more they read, Alphabetic gives back to its audience – as young readers get older, there are more and more elements to explore. It makes the perfect gift for baby showers, back to school, holidays and birthdays.
