

A book of sparkling essays and profound packets of wit. Ashleigh Brilliant, the Pot-Shot cartoonist/philosopher, is also a masterful satirist and a provocative and entertaining essayist. His fans will welcome this new and substantial collection of his bemused essays on the human condition (illustrated with his own Pot-Shots, of course). like, The Theology of Peanut Butter, Faith, Soap, and Charity, Black Snow, The Lost Cord, A Little Gift of Immortality. The anthology also includes a generous collection of Brilliants famous song parodies and poems, as well as other reflective, probing and funny literary musings. Illustrated.
