

Sex has become Zach's choice of medicine to deal with the stresses of life in the fifth book of this eleven-book series. As Zach returns to school to further his education, he meets a potential love interest but the budding relationship is threatened by his careless sexcapades. His sexual preference only adds fuel to the fire when his sexuality becomes his mother's main topic of discussion. What will Zach do when he's forced to deal with that dreaded question? While Tony is taking on a huge challenge by raising his son as a single gay father, he's forced to make tough choices regarding his son's mother's choices that could have a lasting impact on his future relationship with his son. Tony's union with Raidon is under fire because of Raidon's decision to provide shelter for his estranged brother. Will Tony and Raidon get through these tough times or is the writing on the wall? Dwight is trying to step up to the plate and become the man he's destined to be, but his past mistakes are rearing their ugly head. As Dwight elects to take the biggest step forward in his life, will his bad judgements cause his world to shatter into pieces? Will he lose Zach forever because of his life-changing decision? Will this mark the end of Zach and Dwight's friendship?
