

The Honorable Michael G. Oxley passed away the first day of this year. He helped restore investor confidence in the markets at a critical time. As you know, he co-sponsored the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, a bill that protects investors and the general public and established the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board. Congressman Oxley led the House of Representatives in examining and responding to the loss of investor confidence in the capital markets following the financial accounting and auditing scandals of 2001-2002. Mike Oxley will be missed. Oxley was born in Findlay, Ohio and received a bachelor of arts degree from Miami University in 1966 and a law degree from Ohio State University in 1969. He was a member of the Alpha chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity at Miami. From 1969 to 1972, Oxley worked for the Federal Bureau of Investigation and became active in the Ohio Republican Party. He served in the Ohio House of Representatives from 1973 to 1981. Oxley was elected a U.S. Representative in 1981 in a special election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of U.S. Representative Tennyson Guyer. Oxley began serving at this post in June of 1981 in the 97th Congress. He served as the chairman of the Committee on Financial Services, and was House sponsor of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, which enacted sweeping post-Enron regulations of publicly traded companies. Oxley announced his retirement from Congress on November 1, 2005, effective at the end of his term in 2007. Following his retirement from Congress, Oxley was named a nonexecutive vice chairman for NASDAQ, and a partner at the law firm of BakerHostetler in Washington, D.C. He later became a lobbyist for the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, the self-regulatory body of the securities industry. Oxley, a non-smoker, was diagnosed with lung cancer around 2006, and became a member of the Lung Cancer Alliance board. He died in McLean, Virginia, on January 1, 2016 from the disease. Mike Oxley will be missed.
